

Mastitis is changing

Think broad.

Intervet Satellite Symposium
IDF International Mastitis Conference

Tuesday, June 14th 2005, at the Mecc in the Euro/Florin room in the Euro Centre

The following 3 experts have been invited to participate at the Intervet satellite symposium. Within their presentations they will discuss the latest mastitis research and how it can be practically applied in the field.

Program

10.⁰⁰ hrs Welcome by the chairman Ton de Ruijter, Dutch Veterinary Association (NL)

Prof. Dr. Ynte-Hein Schukken, Cornell University (USA)
Mastitis is changing, latest insights on mastitis research.

11.⁰⁰ hrs Coffee break

11.¹⁵ hrs Otlis Sampimon, Animal Health Service, (NL)
Coagulase Negative Staphylococci, an emerging pathogen.

Dr. Ellen Schmitt van de Leemput, Cabinet Vétérinaire Villaines la Juhel, (F)
How to manage mastitis at farm level; field experiences from a French practitioner.

12.³⁰ hrs Closing

Presentations will be held in English. Simultaneous translation will be offered in French and Hungarian.